New York Journals.—Bennett is the sole owner of the Herald The Tribune is owned by stockholders, of which Dr J C. Ayer, of Lowell, is the heaviest Samuel Sinclair, the publisher, is also one of its largest owners, while Stephen T. Clark, the writer of the money articles, and Horace Greeley are interested to a large amount The capital stock is $600,000. The organization of editorial staff is as follows The editor-in-chief is Horace Greeley. Sidney Howard Clay is the managing editor—the executive head of the concern. Cool, able, courteous and energetic, he has not his equal in the State. Roderick Crane is the news editor; L. N. Browne, the city editor. The financial department is under the charge of S. T. Clarke, one of the ablest of financiers. Solon Robinson edits the department of agriculture. George Ripley, at one time one of the most eloquent preachers of Boston, is the literary editor William Winter is the theological, Henry C Watson the musical, and Clarence Cook the art editor. The corps of editorial writers embraces the names of Congdon, Smalley. Young and Wilkinson. A J Cummings edits the weekly and semi weekly Myron Fox reads all copy to prevent a repetition in the paper, and D. O. O'Donnell keeps the index. In addition, the Tribune has a corps of fifteen reporters, second to none in the land. They are detailed for special duty on the police at fires, on the dry goods market, in the courts at Brooklyn, at Jersey city, and all along shore. The principal owners of the Times are Leonard W Jerome, James B. Taylor, Henry J Raymond, George Jones, the publisher, and Christopher Morgan, of Methodist fame During Mr. Raymond's absence, F J Otterson, formerly of the Tribune, is the managing editor, as he is a writer of superior abilities. The World is conducted by Manton Marble, who is the largest owner in the concern. Of the younger journalists of New York there are several of great promise, among them Daniel K. O'Connell, of the Tribune, and Augustus Maverick, of the Evening Post. The best editorial writers, and each inimitable in his way, are George Wilkes, of the Spirit of the Times, Sidney Howard Clay and Charles T. Congdon, of the Tribune, Wm. H. Hurlbert, of the World, and Charles Nordoff, of the Evening Post. The best political statistician living is probably Horace Greeley, and the next best Franklin J. Otterson, managing editor of the Times, though Thomas G. Sherman, a lawyer, is a perfect cyclopedia of political knowledge, and is a very useful man for more than one newspaper establishment. The Nation has a subscription list of over seven thousand, while the Round Table is holding its own in spite of the bitter criticisms it gives and receives. The Independent rolls up the overwhelming list of 70,000 subscribers, and the number is daily increasing.—New York Citizen.

A Perfect Antidote for all Poisons.—A plain farmer says:

"It is now over twenty years since I learned that sweet oil would cure the bite of a rattlesnake, not knowing it would cure other kinds of poison. Practice, observation and experience have taught me that it will cure poison of any kind, both on man and beast. I think no farmer should be without a bottle of it in his house The patient must take a spoonful of it internally, and bathe the wound for a cure. To cure a horse it requires eight times as much as it does a man Here let me say of one of the most extreme cases of snake bites in this neighborhood Eleven years ago this summer, where the case had been thirty days standing, and the patient had been given up by his physician, I heard of it, carried the oil, gave him one spoonful, which effected a cure. It is an antidote for arsenic and strychnine. It will cure bloat in cattle by eating too freely of fresh clover; it will cure the sting of bees, spiders, or other insects; and will cure persons who have been poisoned by a low running vine growing in the meadows, called ivy."

Reconstructed Loyalty in Mobile.—The Mobile Register and Advertiser, of June 7th, in an editorial article says:

"To have been a "Union" man at the South, while war flamed from the swords and brands of Union troops at our very hearthstones, was to have been an insane brute, without a spark of the soul or one throb of the pulse of a man. We scout the insinuation that the heroic men who fought on the Southern side in the late war, were "traitors" The father of lies never uttered a baser lie. If they were, we share their guilt. Thank God, we have no part of the guilt of those who, while war raged, were "traitors" to their hearths, neighbors, countrymen and States"

The Register and Advertiser is a fierce Johnson organ, and supports the President's policy strenuously, of the effect of which the above is a sample

Independence in the East.—A dispatch dated at New York, July 5th, says:

Dispatches from all sections of the country announce that the anniversary of our independence was celebrated with spirit everywhere. In this city the demonstration was equal to any of its predecessors. In Philadelphia the day was made the occasion of presenting the war-tattered flags of the Pennsylvania regiments to the State authorities. General Hancock took command of the volunteers, who numbered about 10,000, together with about 1,100 orphans of both sexes of slain soldiers. General Meade made the presentation, and Governor Curtin received the flags. Appropriate addresses were made.

Ohio and Indiana.—A late Washington dispatch says:

"Representatives Clark and Delano, of Ohio, have returned. Clark brings the most encouraging reports about political matters throughout the States. The last message of the President lost Johnson the greater part of his few remaining supporters. Similar reports reach the representatives from Indiana. Delano is suffering severely from his eyes, and it is with great difficulty that he attends to any part of his daily duties."

Coming Down.—There is such a thing as coming down handsomely. At the Virginia University Commencement, General Fitzhugh Lee was asked to say something, when he said this

"Ladies and Gentlemen: There is a small village in this good old State known as Appomattox Court-house. At this place I was most forcibly reminded on the 9th day of April, 1865, that I had nothing more to say I thank you most heartily for the honor you have so kindly conferred upon me"

Secession Outcroppings.—A Georgia journal says "We hold that there is absolutely no obligation on any State in the Federal Union to be what is termed "loyal" to the Government of that Union, but that State in the North or in the South, or known by the name of either Massachusetts or Florida, South Carolina or Wisconsin The thing is a free will thing altogether. The South has a future before her, and if now cast in to the pit by wicked brethren, will yet, some day, like Joseph, come to bear away in a mighty land."

Faugh!—The University of North Carolina has conferred upon President Johnson the degree of LL D. This is quite as preposterous as the degree of D D , conferred by Johnson upon Colonel Forney. Johnson's friends all interpret Forney's degree of D. D. to mean a quack doctor of divinity, and Forney's friends will justly reciprocate the left-hand compliment by dubbing the President a quack doctor of laws Time and accident set all things even

A Model Mayor.—Brooklyn has a Mayor who is one of a thousand. The City Council having passed a resolution to raise his salary from $3,000 to $5,000, the Mayor—the Hon Samuel M. Booth—has vetoed it! We suppose it is needless to add that Mr Booth is a staunch Republican, and that we commend his fidelity to the public interests, with more certainty of its being admired than imitated.

Curt.—Some officious individual asked General Sherman to call on the members of the Southern Railroad delegation from South Carolina, now on a visit to Cincinnati, to whom W T S replied "Thank you—no! I did call on the gentlemen once, and I think it is their turn to call on me now."

The remains of the late Governor Corwin were buried at Lebanon on the 12th of June. The Star says the body had been embalmed and preserved in the vault of the cemetery, to await the arrival of his only son, W H Corwin, Esq , who has been in Mexico since 1851.

Nebraska.—The result of the Nebraska election is at last definitely known The Union men have been successful "all round" Butler has 145 majority for Governor, Marquette has 156 majority for Congress, and the State Constitution 111 majority. The total vote is about 8,000. Nebraska will now at once apply for admission as a State.

New Jersey.—The census statement of New Jersey, for the year 1865, has just been published by the Controller of that State. All the counties but two show an increase over the population of 1861. The total increase is 101,665, which is at the rate of 16 per cent. in five years, or three and one fifth per cent. per year In 1860 the population was 672,031; in 1866 it was 773,700.

Puck.—The San Francisco comic paper comes out for the Fenians in this wise

Puck wears the green upon his breast,
The shamrock in his hat
And when he thinks of Ireland's woes,
His heart goes pity Pat!

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE.

FRIDAY MORNING, AUGUST 3, 1866.

Facts about the Owyhee Trade.

The Californians, it turns out, have been premature in their expressions of joy over the great success of the route through the northern part of their State to Owyhee. A stage coach succeeded about a month ago in getting through from Chico to Ruby City within four days, whereat our California friends greatly exulted, and promised themselves that they would thereafter beat the slow, plodding "web-feet" entirely, in the rapid and cheap transmission of freight and passengers to Idaho.

But the result does not justify these lofty anticipations. Though the coaches were to run tri-weekly, carrying the mails, they had made but three trips up to the 23d of July, by which date nearly a month had elapsed since the "fast coach" went through. The trouble is owing in part to the hostility of the Indians—notwithstanding Gen. Halleck has lined the road with all the troops at his command, refusing to employ them in a campaign against the savages, who are robbing and murdering on every side.

A statement of the time made by freight on the two routes this season, will serve to demonstrate the superiority of the route via the Columbia river.

On the 18th of March last, Mr. Henry Myers, a merchant of Ruby City, made a contract with Whitney & Co., of San Francisco, to ship a large stock of goods by the Pacific railroad to Colfax, and thence by trains to Owyhee. The goods were carried free on the Sacramento river and the railroad, and were to be delivered in Ruby City at 14 cents per pound, in 35 days from the time they started.

The goods left San Francisco March 20th, and arrived at Ruby City July 2d, having been 104 days on the route.

Goods were shipped at the same time by the Columbia river, which reached Ruby City in 24 days from San Francisco—having been carried by pack animals from Umatilla. The same pack train, after delivering its freight, returned twice to Umatilla—thus making two more trips—and landed its third load of freight in Ruby City before the goods sent by the California route arrived.

Two other trains have reached Ruby City from Chico, one being 70, and the other 100 days on the route.

These particulars are furnished by a well known citizen of Portland, now at Owyhee, and are therefore fully reliable. They show that the California route has done nothing yet, whatever it may do hereafter.

Fourth of July Talk.

We publish to-day lengthy extracts from speeches delivered on the Fourth of July by Generals Sherman and Logan. Those timid souls who would not have the exploits of our armies in quelling the rebellion mentioned on our national anniversary, lest the "reconstructed" should take umbrage thereat, will do well to read these speeches, to see how great soldiers and approved patriots can talk about the crime of treason and the noble achievements of our armies in fighting the rebellion down. The country's soldiers are not afraid of "preventing reconciliation" by continuing to regard treason as a crime. They do not consider allusions to their proud achievements over treason untimely on the Fourth of July, or unsuitable for orations pronounced upon that day. Copperheads who affect such great admiration for the soldiers, and who so intensely deprecate any allusions to the rebellion on the Fourth of July, can read with profit what General Logan, a life long Democrat, says in a Fourth of July speech about treason and traitors.

COWAN.—This political Scapin is now one of Johnson's most ardent admirers. When A. Johnson was inaugurated as Vice President of the United States, the moral soul of Cowan was shocked beyond measure, and he could not find language coarse enough to denounce the scene which attended that inauguration; but the smiles of Executive corruption have not only shut his mouth for censure, but opened it for the most fulsome praise.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 2.—The Union State Central Committee met yesterday. Louis R. Lull and Ira P. Rankin were elected [illegible] to fill the vacancies caused by the death of Samuel H. Parker and the resignation of A. J. [illegible]. The following resolutions are also adopted:

Resolved, That until such [illegible] shall [illegible] those States lately in rebellion should not be admitted to representation in Congress. That by all laws the victor [illegible] place political power in the hands of the vanquished until full and ample guarantees for future protection are given and accepted. That a people who have waged for four years an unjust war against the Government cannot complain of any [illegible] denied the opportunity to do in the Halls of Legislation what they were [illegible] to accomplish in the [illegible].

Resolved, That the Union party of [illegible] are opposed to any legislation or to any policy in Congress or by the President, which shall fall short of a full settlement of the question of human slavery in [illegible] as well as name throughout our whole country, and [illegible] reconstruction, reorganization, or rehabilitation which does not assure the whole people, white as well as black, life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness will be [illegible] in its results, and a full [illegible] that the Republic does not [illegible] the genius to save what it had the valor to win.

Resolved, That the work of [illegible] implies a moral regeneration of [illegible] men and parties, and should be carried on among defeated and [illegible] rebels and rebel States, rather than in the ranks of the Union party. That the Vallandighams, the Woods, the Seymours, who are active in promoting a convention at Philadelphia, and who, it is certain, are to participate in it, are not fit associates for loyal men, and are not to be trusted in any [illegible] with the [illegible] of the Republic. That the party which has proved capable of carrying the [illegible] fully through years of bloody war, may safely be [illegible] to finish in time of peace the work yet remaining to be done to insure the permanence of pure republican [illegible] in America.

[illegible] That we [illegible] the action of Congress and of our Union Delegation in Congress on the question of [illegible], and that any course less radical would not have met the approbation of the [illegible] of the State of California.

Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing resolution be transmitted to our Union delegates in Congress and published in the Union papers of the State.

W. H. PARKS, President.

ALBERT WHEATON, Secretary.

A recent military order [illegible] from Headquarters states that, by direction of the President, all [illegible] from the regular army who voluntarily joined their regiments or returned [illegible] at any military post or recruiting rendezvous before the 15th day of April, 1866, will be released [illegible] without trial or punishment, on condition that they make good the time lost by their desertion and forfeit all pay and allowances for the time of their absence. Such [illegible] as under this order surrender [illegible] at any other place than the stations of their regiments, will be subject to [illegible] to other regiments as if they were unattached recruits.

[illegible] and Charles De Young, publishers of the Dramatic Chronicle, have been arrested for publishing an alleged libelous article in regard to the burning of the U. S. [illegible] building, in which it is [illegible] that the fire was the work of an incendiary who desired to burn the Metropolitan Theater, and that the incendiary was probably the party most interested in its destruction. The article was generally understood to refer to Mr. Maguire of the Opera House and Academy of Music, who has preferred the complaint.

The P. S. S. Co. have received advices from New York by telegraph stating that the Golden City was detained at Panama two days on account of the unusual quantity of freight, and consequently would not leave that port on her upward trip until the 21st of July. She will, consequently, be due at this port on Saturday.

L. Schumann and Wm. Johnson have been committed to Stockton as insane.

The Pacific Engine Company are having a festival to-day in celebration of their anniversary. San Pablo Engine Company, of Vallejo, were received last night in grand style by a band of music, their pathway being lighted up by hundreds of blazing torches. This afternoon the Pacific, with their Vallejo guests and the Knickerbocker company, participated in a banquet at Hays' Park.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO AUGUST 2.

From New Orleans—Assembling of the Constitutional Convention—A Bloody Riot—The City under Martial Law.

CHICAGO, July 31.—For several days dispatches from New Orleans have threatened trouble upon the assembling of the Constitutional Convention of 1864, which was called to meet at New Orleans the 30th of July, the object of the Convention being to disfranchise the rebels and to put Louisiana in the way of being reconstructed under radical auspices, whilst the object of the rebels were to forcibly resist its meeting. The rebel sheriff, Harry Hays, swore in a posse on Sunday to promote this disruption, and delegates were openly threatened with lamp posts. Lieutenant Governor Vorhees and the Attorney General, telegraphed to the President on Sunday, stating that Governor Welles had issued his proclamation calling an election to fill vacancies in the bogus Convention and was in league with the Republicans, and that it was intended to indict members of the Convention by the Grand Jury, and asking if the President intended that the military forces of the United States should interfere to prevent the execution of civil process, to which the President replied:

WASHINGTON, July 28.—To Albert Vorhees, Lieut-Governor of Louisiana: The military will be expected to sustain and not obstruct or interfere with the proceedings of the Convention. A dispatch on the subject was sent to Governor Welles this morning.

(signed) A. JOHNSON.

Mayor Monroe, on Sunday, had an interview with Gen. Baird, who stated positively that he would prevent the sheriff and his posse, or any State civil officer from interfering with the Convention.

Mayor Monroe issued a proclamation on Monday morning warning the people not to molest the Convention, saying he was satisfied from recent dispatches from Washington, that the deliberations of the members thereof, will receive no countenance from the President, and that he will sustain the officers of the present civil Government and vindicate its laws and acts to the entire satisfaction of the good people of the city and State.

The Convention assembled in the Mechanics' Institute at 12 o'clock on Monday, twenty-six members present. The negroes turned out to protect the Convention, when a fight began in common on the street. Meanwhile, the police surrounded the Convention building in the presence of an immense crowd, and a riot began in earnest. Members of the Convention were arrested and one Doctor Dostie was killed. Others, including the Marshal were wounded. The lockups were speedily filled with members of the convention and negroes. W. P. Lovell was drawn out of the convention and carried to the lockup by a double guard armed to the teeth amid the cheers from the people and cries of "hang him." Reports widely disagree about the number of negroes and rioters killed. General Baird immediately proclaimed martial law, and directed all civil functionaries to report to General Kautz, who was appointed Military Governor, with his headquarters at the City Hall. Quiet was then restored, and reports to-day say the convention prisoners were released and no further disturbance had occurred. The casualties stated at the lowest are, 34 negroes killed, and several white persons including policemen were wounded. The hall and vestibules of the Mechanic's Institute [illegible] sad appearances.

WASHINGTON, August 1.—A telegram from Gen. Sheridan has been received recommending the continuance of martial law in New Orleans until after investigations of the late riots shall be concluded. The President's dispatch to Lieut. Gov. Vorhees was, that there will be no military interference with the courts. As published it read "convention" for "courts." Judge Roeler, chairman of the Louisiana Democratic Committee, now here in Washington, telegraphed yesterday to the Attorney General of Louisiana to arrest every man engaged in setting up a new government. We have seen the President and he will do all that can be expected—call on the military for aid.

Telegraphic Correspondence in Relation to the Louisiana Convention.

The following telegraphic correspondence explains itself:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, Washington, July 21st, '66.

To His Excellency Gov. Wells: I have been advised that you have issued a proclamation convening the Convention elected in 1864. Please inform me under and by what authority has this been done, and by what authority this Convention can assume to represent the whole people of Louisiana. (Signed) ANDREW JOHNSON.

The Governor's reply is as follows:

STATE OF LOUISIANA, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, New Orleans, July 28th, 1866.

To His Excellency Andrew Johnson, President of the United States: Your telegram is received. I have not issued any order convening the Convention of 1864. The Convention was re-convened by the President of that body by virtue of a resolution authorizing him to do so, and in that event for him to call on the proper officers of the State to issue writs of election for delegates in unrepresented parishes. My proclamation was issued in response to that call. As soon as vacancies can be ascertained they will be filled, and then the whole State will be represented in the Convention.

J. MADISON WELLS, Governor.

Public Meeting at Washington.

CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—Washington specials in this morning's papers say that at a meeting yesterday the question as to the right of the President to appoint and commission to office men who have been rejected by the Senate, was briefly considered and referred to Attorney General Stanbury for his opinion.

Presentation of Commission to Gen. Sherman.

The President to-day presented Gen. Sherman his commission as Lieutenant General of the armies of the United States. Gen. Grant was present when the commission was signed and delivered.

Resignation of Gen. Eckert.

Gen. T. T. Eckert, Assistant Secretary of War, appointed and confirmed last week, has sent in his resignation of that office to accept the position of General Superintendent of the telegraph lines from Norfolk, (Va.), through New England to the end of the Atlantic Cable on this continent.

Atlantic Cable Rates for Messages.

NEW YORK, July 31.—Business messages are being transmitted over the cable to Europe. The latest London dates to private parties in this city up to this morning were to yesterday. Four thousand words were transmitted, through the cable in twelve hours on the 28th. The following have been fixed as the rates for Atlantic Telegraph from any telegraph station in America to any in Great Britain: For twenty words or less, including address of sender and receiver, £20 in gold. Every additional word, not exceeding five letters, 20 shillings sterling per word. From and to same in Europe, 21 pounds; for every additional word, 21 shillings. From same to same in Africa, Asia or India, not exceeding in all one hundred letters, 25 pounds; every additional word, 25 shillings. The letters in all the words, after the first twenty, will be counted and divided by five. Each five, or fractional remainder, will be charged as a word. Messages in cypher will be charged double the foregoing rates.

Commercial and Financial.

NEW YORK, July 31.—The Commercial's money article says: The stock market continues active, but shows a slight abatement from the speculative activity of yesterday. Government securities opened steady, but upon the receipt of telegraphic quotations of 68¾ for five-twenties at London yesterday, the market was much weaker, and each issue of five-twenties closed ⅛ lower than last evening. The first series of seven-thirties, ⅞ lower; the other series retain yesterday's figures. During yesterday and to-day there has been a considerable amount of conversions of seven-thirties at the Sub Treasury. Cotton is less active, with a decided change at 37@39c for middling uplands. Flour opened at 5@10 better on sound low grades, but closed dull, with the advance partially lost.

Meeting of Pacific Coast Bread and Butternuts.

CHICAGO, August 2d.—A meeting of citizens of the Pacific coast resident in New York, was held at the Metropolitan Hotel, on Monday last, for the purpose of making arrangements to hold a meeting at some place on the 12th of August, in which it is determined to take action whereby their respective States may be represented in the Philadelphia Convention. The committee appointed to carry out the wishes of the meeting is as follows: Jesse Williams, John S. Berry, Sol Seller, John Carmichael, O. M. Wozencraft and Thomas H. Harris, Chairman.

Departure of the Empress Carlotta.

The Empress Carlotta left the City of Mexico July 9th and [illegible] Havana on the 17th, en route to Europe.

An Important Military Order.

General Terry, commanding at Richmond Va. has issued a general order forbidding in his military department during the existence of martial law, all military organizations or associations for the purpose of drill or military instructions other than the militia organized by the Governor of Virginia. This order will put a stop to the nightly drills of parties of negroes which have recently caused so much excitement in Richmond.

Rhode Island Delegates to Philadelphia.

The Rhode Island Democratic State Convention have elected the following delegates to the Philadelphia Convention: William B. Lawrence, Amasa Sprague, Alfred Anthony, A. N. Bullock, Thomas Steere, Jas. Parsons, Jas. Waterhouse and E. R. Potter. Resolutions denouncing Congress and praising President Johnson's policy were adopted unanimously.

Louisiana Convention.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 1.—The Convention meets again to-morrow, and it is believed that martial law will be speedily rescinded by order of the President.

New York Money and Market Report.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—The Post's money article says: The loan market is unchanged. Government stocks are firm. Railroad shares are active. Cotton, dull. Flour, $[illegible]—10@20c lower. Breadstuffs closed heavy. Wheat, [illegible], and 2@4c lower. Liverpool freight are quite firm. The Commercial's money article says there are no quotations by the Atlantic Cable to-day, which has kept transactions in great suspense. An offer was made to-day by private parties to supply the stock exchange and gold room with London quotations at one thousand dollars per month. It would seem impossible that information of such importance could be a matter of private monopoly, and doubtless arrangements will be to have information accessible to all.

Cholera at New York and Brooklyn.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—Fifteen cases of cholera and six deaths in this city, and eighteen cases and five deaths in Brooklyn occurred to-day. There were three deaths from cholera among the troops on Governor's Island last night, including Lieut. Smith.

Arrival of New Zealand Steamer—South American News.

NEW YORK, July 31.—The steamer Henry Chauncey has arrived, bringing California dates of the 11th, and $1,673,000 in treasure.

The arrival of the first steamer from New Zealand at Panama excited much interest and good feeling. She made the passage in twenty-six days, two days under the schedule time. She brought ninety passengers, and the route is spoken of as very delightful.

President Perez has been re-elected in Chile, and all fears of a revolt are dispelled.

Matters in Peru are still unsettled, and trouble is anticipated. An attempt was made to assassinate Governor Morro on his landing at Callao. He was wounded by a pistol shot but not much injured.

Panama advices state that the prospects of the present railroad company getting a renewal of their charter are very slim. Strong efforts are being made to put the road in the hands of a new company, the present giving great dissatisfaction to their management.

Cholera Cases—Increase of the Epidemic.

NEW YORK, August 2.—Since the 22d ult., there have been thirty cases and twenty-one deaths from cholera on Blackwell's Island. From the 29th to the 31st ult., there were sixty-two cases and twenty-six deaths on Ward's Island. In the city yesterday there were twenty-one cases and nine deaths. Also, on Governor's Island yesterday several new cases and five deaths. The epidemic is on the increase in Brooklyn.

NEWS BY THE ATLANTIC CABLE.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—The Herald has the following, dated London, July 30:

A great meeting was held to-day in the city. Three hundred thousand people were present. Resolutions were adopted declaring that they had no faith in the government, petitions which are to be presented to Parliament demanding inquiry into the conduct of Sir Richard Mayne, Chief of Police. The procession was immense. Several bands of music were in attendance and everything passed off quietly.

The Tribune has a special dispatch which says that peace was believed to be certain at Berlin on Saturday. Bismark and the King return this week. Prussia carries all her points. The Liberals support Bismark's foreign policy. The Austrian naval victory is much overestimated. The Hyde Park riots and the movements to form an exclusive Reform League have imperilled the Derby Government.

LONDON, July 30.—Consols closed at 88⅞ for money. In American securities, the latest sales on Monday were five-twenties, 69c. New York and Central Railroad, 77½ @78.

LIVERPOOL, July 30.—Cotton sales to-day reach 120,000 bales, market closing firm.

Business of the Atlantic Cable.

Although the announcement that the Atlantic Cable was open for business yesterday, there were twenty messages filed on that day, and the cash receipts at the New York office were $3024 in gold.

HEARTS CONTENT, July 29.—The steamer Blood Hound is alongside the Great Eastern taking in twelve miles of cable to repair the Gulf of St. Lawrence cable, which we expect to accomplish next week. The Atlantic Cable is working splendidly.

NEW YORK, August 1.—To all agents of the Associated Press for the present and until we learn all the peculiar traits of the cable so as to fix upon a just tariff for the burdens it imposes, the rule will be to assess the expenses upon the papers publishing the news. At a meeting of our association to-day it was ordered that all European news by telegraph, whether addressed to the association's agents or to individual editors should be delivered directly from the telegraph office to the general agent of the Associated press, to be treated as news of the Association. This will probably put an end to a growing evil here, and I hope it will be approved, and enforced among local associations.

PUBLIC THOROUGHFARES.—In order that a continuance of the prosperity which has marked the progress of this city for four years past may be uninterrupted, our citizens should be moving in the matter of building public highways leading to the interior. There are very few places in the country having so many natural advantages as Portland, and yet scarcely any place has had the elements to contend against that have beset the course of the city, notwithstanding which the indomitable energy of our people has been the means of accomplishing much, as is attested by the present healthy prosperity. That the city may continue in its rapid advancement it is very necessary that the avenues of trade be permanently improved. A good McAdamized road should be constructed from Milwaukie to Aurora in order that the southern counties of the Willamette valley, and this city, may reap the advantages to be obtained from the trade and exchange of merchandise for farm products. The improvements made by the Portland McAdamized Road Company have now stood for nearly four years, and shares have a market value which could readily be doubled in case the improvement was extended, at least to Oregon City, immediately. The farmers, and citizens generally, of Tualatin Plains are very anxious to unite with the people of Multnomah county, and this city, for the purpose of building a first rate road in that direction. That the trade of Tualatin is worth considerable effort to get, none will deny, and we can but think that heretofore we have been quite too dilatory in this matter. Enough money has been expended from year to year, in the partial improvement of the roads we speak of, by supervisors and individual enterprise, to have been more than sufficient to give the county first class thoroughfares, had the means been properly handled. A company should be incorporated, with capital enough to make the road good in the first place, after which the receipts from tolls would be ample to keep it in repair and pay a handsome dividend on the investment. Parties who have some knowledge of the work to be performed, are wanted to engage in an enterprise of this character. The domestic trade to be acquired by having good roads is one of the greatest importance to our city, and one which we cannot hope for, or expect to obtain, without roads. At the present time there is daily a number of farmers' wagons in our city, but this number ought to be many times greater at all seasons of the year. The agricultural community cannot now very well spare the time from their harvest fields to come to the city, and if they could, they have but a small quantity of produce to bring with them, and would carry back but limited supplies for their families. After harvest, when the crops are all secured, and they have time in abundance, the rainy season is upon us, and the roads are so difficult to travel that the features of this trade are but illy improved from the condition we find them to-day. We learn from Mr. Carter that the British Colonies, through which he has recently traveled, are provided with magnificent McAdamized roads, over and through some of the worst possible places imaginable, and he felt a sense of shame when riding upon those roads, to think how poorly we are provided in that particular, with our other advantages so far superior to those of the country north of the 49th parallel of latitude. At the last county fair, held at Hillsboro, this subject was referred to in the annual address, by Gov. Gibbs, and his remarks were received with enthusiasm, but since then, notwithstanding the importance of the subject, nothing whatever has been done in the matter of moving for a better condition of the road. True, a new survey has been made over the route as it leads from this city, but there are doubts about any permanent benefits being likely to accrue from the present plans of operation. Most likely the Supervisor will do all that a man can do under the laws of our State, to provide a good road to Tualatin Plains, but unless we are greatly mistaken travel will be obliged to stop, as usual in the winter, at a time when the road is most needed. We hope this subject will receive proper attention from our merchants and business men, and that a company may be formed which will entitle it to such consideration as the magnitude of its importance, deserves, and which the prosperity of Portland so justly demands. The farmers complain that the merchants are indifferent about the matter, and on the other hand the merchants aver that they are ready and willing to aid liberally in the enterprise the moment they find that the agriculturists are united for the adoption of any feasible plans to carry out the general interests of all parties. We would suggest that public meetings be held, both at Portland and in Washington county, at an early day, to inaugurate a [illegible] calculated to be of mutual benefit to all.

THE WORK OF A STEAMER.—As the subject of steam fire engines is now attracting considerable attention in this city, the following from the Sunday Mercury of New York, may be of interest, as showing the work of a steamer in the Empire city, on her first trial. She is a Holmsburg machine, built in Philadelphia. The Mercury says: "She commenced play in three and a half minutes after the match was applied, and when sufficient head of steam was up, threw water 232 feet through an 1½ inch nozzle. This play would alone have placed her in the front rank of first-class engines, but her ambition did not rest here. Her motto seemed to be onward, and onward it went, making a second play of 270 feet solid water, wetting the ground 20 feet beyond. On the last dash she attained a water pressure of 215 pounds, which is a first-class water pressure for a first-class engine, and drove a boy out of the corner of a fence, full 300 feet from the nozzle. On this play eight men couldn't hold the pipe, and, lashed as it was, to a stake, driven in the ground, the writhing of the hose literally dragging the stake from the ground, and drawing stake, men and all, a dozen stripling men, ten feet backward [illegible]—a fearful accident being prevented by the coolness and self-possession of the person in charge of the pipe."

THE NICOLSON PAVEMENT.—A movement is on foot in San Francisco to [illegible] the [illegible] of the Nicolson pavement. The [illegible] failures, as the [illegible] are styled, have been too heavy for the Nicolson company, but the latter now propose, in consideration of the city putting the Nicolson on the same footing as other pavements, and accepting it whenever properly laid down, to keep the same in repair for a compensation of one cent per foot per annum, in gold coin, to be paid in advance yearly, and offer to give good guarantees that their part of the bargain shall be complied with. The papers are filled with extensively signed petitions, asking the Board of Supervisors to accept the proposition, as it is claimed that the plan proposed would effect a large saving to the city, in the important item of street repairs. Messrs. J. H. Perry & Co., of this city, who have laid the pavement rather extensively here, we understand are willing to undertake a similar plan of repairs, etc., and will insure the pavement for a term of years, against all damage except that of high water and fire.

TROPHIES OF THE WAR.—Some time ago, it will be recollected we made mention of a present to this office by Joseph Buchtel, Esq., of a photograph of the Vicksburg, Mississippi, Citizen, taken from an original copy of that paper, which has since been donated to the Portland Library Association of this city. The Citizen was printed on wall paper, and the issue of July 2d, 1863, closed out the concern, as it was taken possession of by some of General Grant's "Illinois boys" two days after. A printer in the Oregonian office, Coll. Van Cleve, has a composing-rule, which was in use by one of the employees of the Citizen office at the time the rebel strong hold was captured. It is a fine implement, made of silver, and is highly prized as a trophy of the war.

GOOD TEMPLAR'S HALL.—We learn that the Good Templars of this city have about completed their arrangements for the construction of a Hall at the north-west corner of Madison and Third streets, opposite the public plaza. The building will be 50 feet front by 100 feet deep, two stories high, frame. The upper story is to be appropriated for the meetings of the three lodges, and the lower story will be leased for the purposes of a billiard saloon, ice cream saloon, etc., on such conditions as to prevent the occupant from dealing in spirituous liquors, but at the same time affording amusement and refreshment for the patrons of the saloon.

MERCANTILE CHANGE.—Messrs. Powell & Coe of Umatilla, have disposed of their interest in the forwarding and commission business at that place to Messrs. John R. Foster & Co. of this city, who will conduct a general forwarding business to all parts of the mines in Oregon, Idaho and Owyhee. The retiring firm thank their patrons for past favors, and recommend their successors as prompt and correct business men, which will be endorsed by all who know them. The card of the new firm will be seen in another column.

THE FALKLAND ISLANDS.—Lieut. Hand and Dr. Storrer have taken their departure from Oregon for the Falkland Islands, having left by the Oriflamme on last Saturday. The English Government, it is said, have determined to fortify the Islands, and no doubt such gentlemen as they, will there find a [illegible] for the [illegible] talents. Besides the anthracite coal previously discovered on the Islands, we are informed a fine quality of bituminous coal has recently been found.

GOOD TEMPLARS.—In Portland Lodge No. 20, the following officers were chosen and duly installed on the 1st inst. for the current quarter: W. H. Brackett, W. C. T.; Miss Irena Quivey, W. R. H. S.; Miss Eva Pope, W. L. H. S.; Mrs. W. H. Brackett, W. V. T.; Miss Mary Patterson, W. A. S.; Boyd P. Quivey, W. F. S.; Miss Cynthea Chesy, W. T.; Jason L. Royal, W. M.; Miss Ella Harrison, W. A. M.; Mrs. M. A. Howe, W. I. G.; L. W. Morgan, W. O. G.; Samuel A. Moreland, W. C.

CHEESE AND BUTTER.—We are informed that Mr. Dufur is now making cheese of a quality unequaled, at his dairy east of Portland, which is selling at retail, in the market, for family use, at 33 cents ℔ lb. Messrs. Robert & Hillmer are also supplying this market with an extra quality of butter, made by them at their dairy on Lewis river. Mr. Wm. Braden, corner of Fifth and Salmon street is agent for the sale of butter made by these gentlemen.

RECORDER'S COURT.—The docket of the Recorder's Court was cumbered yesterday with the usual number of "cases," and the various charges of fighting, drunks, and disorderly conduct, were passed upon by Judge Hoffman as the circumstances demanded.

SALMON.—The sloop Dan Hayes, Capt. Harrington, with a cargo of Salmon from the fisheries near Cathlamet, finished discharging at the Ash street wharf yesterday. The products of the harvest of two or three men were disposed of, consisting of about one hundred barrels, at prices averaging $11 per barrel, we are informed.

MATCH GAME OF BASE BALL.—The Pioneer Base Ball Club will play a match game to-day, commencing at 4:30 P. M., on their grounds between Fifth and Sixth street, on Oak. Seats will be provided on the field for the accommodation of lady visitors.

FARM FOR SALE.—The farm of Mr. Wm. Hall, on Columbia Slough, will be sold by Auctioneer, Richardson on Friday next, as specified by advertisement in another column. Mr. Hall is preparing to take up his residence at [illegible].

GEN. RUFUS INGALLS.—This distinguished officer of the United States Army arrived by the steamer Wilson G. Hunt, at Fort Vancouver yesterday. His many friends will be glad to see him.

CROWDED OUT.—An exchange comes to us with a notice that "Truth" is crowded out of the issue. This is almost as bad as the up-country editor, who said: "For the evil effects of intoxicating liquor see our inside."

TEMPERANCE LECTURE.—Mr. Augustus Kellner will deliver a lecture on the subject of temperance, at the M. E. Church this evening.

FROM IDAHO.

The following items are obtained from the Idaho Statesman of the 26th and 28th July:

GENERAL INGALLS.

Chief Quartermaster of the Army of the United States, Rufus Ingalls, has arrived in our city on an inspection tour through the Western Department. He is one of our veteran officers, and bears the credit of hard service, and is in every respect a perfect gentleman. He understands the condition of affairs here and will make his tour profitable to the Department. He don't concide in removing Fort Boise to the sagebrush canyons of Bruno.

JUDGE JOHN CUMMINS

Has returned from holding his term of Court in Owyhee. As this was his first effort on the bench, his course was looked upon with unusual interest. We are pleased to announce that he has acquitted himself with honor and to the entire satisfaction of the bar. We bespeak for him a good record as a legal jurist.

WIND AND RAIN.

Tuesday about one o'clock P. M., the clouds thickened up in the South, and their black and angry appearances soon gave evidence of a terrible wind storm. After viewing the angry billows—not exceeding five minutes—immense clouds of dust filled the air and swept by with the most terrible fury. The sight of so much dust, black clouds and roaring of the wind, was terrifying in the extreme, but lasted only about ten minutes, when the rain poured down in heavy torrents. Some sheds and out houses were unroofed, but no serious damage done. The streets were swept perfectly clean of dust and well wet down by the falling rain. The storm appeared to be about a mile in width and continued on in a northerly direction.

NEARLY A DUEL.

One Col. O. H. Hall, Esq., of Idaho City, grossly insulted Judge Roseborough last week, for which he instantly got a black eye, and would have got a severe pummeling but for the interference of friends. The Colonel's Southern blood was fired with indignation and he sent a challenge to the Judge, demanding satisfaction for his wounded honor. The challenge was excepted, weapons, ground and seconds chosen. The affair was to come off early next morning on the hill near the Gambrinus mill, with rifles at forty paces. The Judge was cool, kept the matter quiet and was on the ground ready for duty. The Colonel blowed the whole affair around town, and tried to get himself arrested. The officers knew his weakness and let him run. In the morning the Colonel began early, and after bidding his wife good bye three or four times, he succeeded in finding an officer that consented to relieve him of the unforseen difficulty he had got himself into. So the matter ended, (as the Idahoans say,) without much credit to the Colonel's blood.

HOW TO FIGHT THE INDIANS.

A correspondent of the Statesman, writing from Camp C. F. Smith, says:

Experience teaches us that it is impossible to get a fight with Indians when the party exceeds thirty men. Therefore to accomplish so desirable an end, let the battalion be divided in two parts. Col. Jennings' experience in his past campaign proves it. Henry rifles and good horses with patient and persevering riders are what is wanted.

ARRIVALS FROM THE PLAINS.

Capt. McCurdy's train of emigrants, consisting of twenty-five wagons and sixteen families, arrived here on the 19th inst., in good health and fine spirits. There was but little sickness and no deaths in the train. The emigrants were principally from Henderson and Adams counties, Illinois, and bound for Oregon.

VOLUNTEERS WANTED.

On the subject of enlisting volunteers, the Statesman remarks: If the General Government would enlist 500 men in this Territory, and put them under command of some volunteer officers that have already been out fighting Indians, we will venture that they would do good work. A plenty of men would volunteer for three or six months, such as are hardy, resolute men, and know the ground, and know how to fight Indians, and would like the job of punishing them for the numerous grievances they have already sustained. No better men could be put against the Indians. Such men always have and always will [illegible]. The most they need are, horses, provisions, arms, and ammunition. The expense to the Government would be trifling, compared with the red tape, cautious policy suited only to the regular army, in fighting with civilized nations. A well organized campaign of hardy volunteers from our mining camps would be more effectual than a three years' old style army policy. Why can't these things be done? The Government must have more soldiers, and if our people will take hold of this matter in earnest, with proper representation to the Department, we believe the Government would look upon such an application with favor and furnish the means if we would furnish the men.

REMOVING HOUSES.

Six or eight ox teams left Boise City for Idaho City a few days ago to remove the surplus houses from the latter place to Silver City, Owyhee. This would seem to indicate that Idaho City had begun its downward career.

The following is the Democratic ticket of [illegible] county: Representatives, John Creed, G. W. Paul, A. W. Flournoy. Probate Judge, John L. Kline. County Commissioners, R. L. Gillespie, L. F. Spangler. School Superintendent, Thomas Graham. Public Administrator, R. H. Embry.

The following items are from the Idaho City Union of the 21st and 26th inst.:

FREIGHTS.

We are informed that mule trains are freighting from Umatilla to this city at nine cents per pound, and mule, horse and ox teams at from five to seven cents.

"GONE FROM OUR GAZE."

Gov. Weller, the old "Pull Sonc," failing to make an impression upon the Democracy, or the balance of the "dear peeple," has taken his departure for his old home in California, after a protracted effort to convince them that modern Democracy was the only principle to stand by.

ROBBERY.

Between the hours of 9 and 10 o'clock, Thursday evening, the Auditor and Recorder's office of Boise county, was entered and the county safe robbed of between $3,000 and $4,000 in gold dust. Many exciting rumors were afloat for several hours. The efforts of Mr. Fore, the Auditor, to ferret out the whereabouts of the lost treasure was rewarded yesterday morning with partial success. One purse of $2,500 was found under the Pioneer Saloon, adjoining the office, and another purse of $1,120 under the front stoop of the office. The [illegible] still stands open.

STATE ITEMS.

Mr. William Tull, of Marquam's precinct, Clackamas county, died very suddenly last Tuesday at his residence. He was attacked with bilious colic and lived but a short time.

The upper Willamette is so low that the steamers can no longer descend into the basin between Canemah and Oregon City. Work on the breakwater at Canemah will be resumed next week. When completed, it will raise the water in the basin several feet and enable boats to enter without any trouble.

The Union Convention of Polk county, on Monday, nominated for the State Senate, James B. Riggs, of Dallas. Mr. Riggs is a sound Union man, a good thinker and is quite popular. The Convention also nominated, as we are informed, Dr. Jeffers, of Eola. Mr. Riggs will, no doubt, be elected by fifty majority.

During a few hours' stay at Oregon City yesterday, we noted the mill sites. The building for the paper factory will soon have its walls up. It is confidently stated that the company will be making paper in three months. The race to carry water to it, has been [illegible]. The P. T. Co. is building a large and substantial warehouse at the landing below the falls. Street cleaning is going on actively. Steps have been taken to construct more ample water tanks for defense against fire. Business men complain of unusual dullness.

The State Teachers' Institute was in session at Oregon City from Tuesday morning till last evening. The attendance was quite fair, but not by any means as large as it should have been. Teachers and friends of education, from Multnomah, Clackamas, Washington, Yamhill, Polk, Marion, Linn and Douglas counties, were present. The adjournment of the session had been fixed for last evening. For so short a session, a great variety of educational interests were considered. The usual order of business for each day was lectures, essays and discussions on general or miscellaneous subjects. The lecture by Prof. Wood on Botany, was perhaps the most interesting one of the series, though there were several, others of great interest and decided merit. A committee of the Association was in consultation, through the greater part of the session, on the school law of the State. Whether they were able to agree upon and report the draft of a law, before the adjournment last evening, we are not informed. Their report, however, was expected before the adjournment. The members of the Institute are mostly men of standing in the educational world, but the proceedings struck us upon a brief visit yesterday morning—as rather prosy and not precisely what they should be to awaken a deep interest in the success of the Association.

Johnson's Island in Lake Erie, off Sandusky, the place where thousands of rebel prisoners were confined during the war, has been finally abandoned. The small arms and munitions have been sent to Detroit arsenal, and the heavy guns to Fort Wayne, near Detroit.

The necessary excavations for the foundations of the Branch Mint at Carson City, Nevada, are now being made, and it is said that the work will go steadily on until the building is completed.

THE HUMAN FACE.—What vast expression is there in the human face. Marine Insurance!

THE PACIFIC INSURANCE COMPANY OF SAN FRANCISCO,

IS PREPARED TO INSURE AGAINST ALL MARINE and INLAND NAVIGATION RISKS on Treasure, Cargo or Freight.
mch1d2pt LADD & TILTON, Agents.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try the celebrated

PLANTATION BITTERS,

Which are now recommended by the highest medical authorities, and warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure, and must supercede all other tonics where a healthy, gentle stimulant is required.

They purify, strengthen and invigorate.
They create a healthy appetite.
They are an antidote to change of water and diet.
They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours.
They strengthen the system and enliven the mind.
They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers.
They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach.
They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation.
They cure Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus.
They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headache.

They make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya bark, wintergreen, sassafras, roots and herbs, all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix rum. For particulars, see circulars and testimonials around each bottle.

Beware of impostors. Examine every bottle. See that it has our private U. S. Stamp unmutilated over the cork, with plantation scene, and our signature on a fine steel plate side label. See that our bottle is not refilled with spurious and deleterious stuff. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon or in Bulk, is an impostor. Any person imitating this bottle, or selling any other material therein, whether called Plantation Bitters or not, is a criminal under the U. S. Law, and will be so prosecuted by us. We already have our eye on several parties re-filling our bottles, &c., who will succeed in getting themselves into close quarters. The demand for Drake's Plantation Bitters from ladies, clergymen, merchants, &c., is incredible. The simple trial of a bottle is the evidence we present of their worth and superiority. They are sold by all respectable druggists, grocers, physicians, hotels, saloons, steamboats and country stores.

G. VENARD,

CHARTRES COFFEE!

Manufactory Established in June, 1851.

STEAM POWER, NOS. 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

READ AND REFLECT.

Make sure of HEALTH. "But how?" you ask;
We answer, 'tis an easy task,
Strengthen the STOMACH, and sustain
The NERVES, the servants of the brain,
The LIVER keep in active play
And regulate, from day to day,
Each organ old, on Nature's plan,
Brace and refresh the INNER MAN,
And like a watch that's kept in chime
By constant care, with railroad time,
The system's tone and strength renew,
And thereby cheer the spirits, too.
"How," you inquire, "can this be done?
This victory o'er Disease be won?"
"HOSTETTER'S BITTERS," we reply,
Is HEALTH'S SUPREME PROTECTION—TRY!

As a means of regenerating the disordered and enfeebled system, regulating every function of the internal organs, reviving the depressed spirits, invigorating the constitution, and prolonging life, no medicinal preparation, either of the past or the present time, has been so completely and universally successful as

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS,

Against the vapors foul prepare,
That fever-taint the heavy air,
Drink not unmixed the water found
In prairies, woods or marshy ground.
If sedentary toil you ply,
Nature you must assist—or die—
For when debarred from exercise
For artificial aid she cries.
Medicine's grand purpose and intent
Is threatened evil to prevent:
And if you'd be relieved or spared
From ills that crush the unprepared,
Hostetter's Bitters use—for note
They are the SUREST ANTIDOTE.

To set at defiance the miasma of unhealthy soils, the poison of unwholesome water, the effluvia of crowded work-rooms and factories, and the baneful influence of sedentary employments, it is only necessary to be forearmed with

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Dyspepsia's pangs, that rack and grind
The body, and depress the mind;
Agues, that as they go and come,
Make life a constant martyrdom;
Colics and dysenteric pains,
'Neath which the strong man's vigor wanes;
Bilious complaints, those tedious ills,
Ne'er conquered yet by drastic pills;
Dread diarrhœa that cannot be
Cured by destructive mercury;
Slow constitutional decay
That brings Death nearer, day by day;
Nervous prostration, mental gloom,
Heralds of madness—or the tomb;
For these, though [illegible] fail—
Means of Relief at least we hail,
Hostetter's Bitters—medicine sure,
Not to prevent, alone, but cure.

In dyspepsia, fever and ague, bilious complaints, constipation, flatulency, debility, constipation, [illegible], and in all complaints of Man or Woman, proceeding from a weak or inharmonious [illegible] of the body, the one great remedy and restorative is

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

To wanderers on sea or land,
From Polar shore to Tropic strand;
To lone [illegible] in regions new,
And dwellers in great cities, too;
To soldiers in camp, fort and field,
Who need against [illegible] a shield;
To miners, California bound,
And tillers of wet, marshy ground;
To [illegible] of fragile mold;
To young and middle-aged, and old;
To those in health, who would enjoy
Heaven's best gifts without alloy;
To all the strengthless, weak and pale,
Who droop, yet know not what they ail,
[illegible] Bitters we [illegible]
As Health's most potent element.

If there is any value in public opinion, or any weight in medical testimony, the very best and safest Tonic, Corrective and Alterative now before the world is

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

The Way Soldiers Talk.

At the celebration of the Fourth of July at Salem, Illinois, General Sherman and Logan were present and delivered speeches. The following is an extract from the great speech of General Logan:

I ask you, my countrymen, who are sitting around in this group, you who have sons sleeping far away beneath the burning sands of Georgia, whose faces you will see no more on earth, whose graves, perhaps, you never can visit, I ask you, mothers who have husbands and sons sleeping far away in Southern graves, if you do not want the laws of the land to say that while traitors in the South have their gatherings day after day and strew garlands upon the graves of rebel soldiers, that they may live in their memories, I ask you if, when some poor old decrepid negro should come along with a basket of flowers and strew them upon the grave of a poor loyal soldier, you do not desire that he shall have the right to do it, and that no man shall gainsay it? These are the rights that all ought to have and that all ought to be willing to give every human being in the land. I hope this is not treason, at least I do not believe it is. I believe this is doing justice to those people and justice to ourselves, and it is a Christian act on our part that if we fail to perform, we certainly fail to perform a duty that is incumbent upon us as men who have saved the Government and wrenched it from the hands of traitors. My countrymen, these are questions which, when I come to consider, I feel their influence deeply. I feel that we have many times failed to perform duties that were incumbent upon us, but these duties are so plain that no man, it seems to me, ought to err in the performance of them. When we are asked the question, "Why is it that you are so intent in giving civil rights and the protection of the law to every man in this country—why is it that you are determined to make the loyal man at least a little higher than the traitor in this land?" When you are asked this question it is very easy to answer. You can ask your questioner to cast his eyes upon this stand and see these flags all tattered and torn with shot and shell on the fields of carnage. You can say to him there are evidences that a loyal man can call to the attention of a disloyal man, and you can say to him, Sir, we want no recurrence of these [illegible], we want no tattered nor torn flags as emblems of our loyalty in this country; we want them full grown, with all the stars and stripes upon them, and with each and every man beneath their folds singing paeans and putting their feet down heavily upon treason. Let us, as we look over this wide expanse of country, remember the heroes that are sleeping the sleep that knows no waking, and repeat to ourselves the words of the poet:

> "On Fame's grand camping-ground,
> Their silent tents are spread,
> While glory guards with silence round
> The bivouac of the dead."

Let that be what the patriot can say with reference to the fallen heroes. Let the protection of the law be given to all, and let the rights and privileges that loyal men have enjoyed be still allowed them, and let the rights and privileges that the leading traitors of the land have enjoyed be taken from them. Let the others who were led into conflict by others, who were deceived and hoodwinked into treason, let them be forgiven, and when that is done the work of loyal men is complete, with one exception. What is that exception? It is this: When the rebellion died the head should have died with it—the breath should never again enter the body. [Tremendous cheering.] Whether the head of the rebellion is more guilty than the others makes no difference. [Cheers.] He should have died, and until he dies treason still lives in the land—for it has a head.

There ought to be an example made in this land, for future generations, of Jeff. Davis and many others who were associated with him in the organization of treason. They ought to be tried, convicted and hung. [Loud and prolonged cheering and cries of "Amen!"] But, we are told, you cannot hang him, because, they say, where will you get a jury to convict him? Well, that is a very hard question to answer, if you are going to try him in a Southern State. I suppose to try a traitor by a jury of traitors would be a farce. It seems to me so. But I will tell you how I answer these gentlemen. I say after the close of the rebellion, near the close of the [illegible] of traitors, actuated by the spirit of [illegible], set on by Jeff. Davis and his co-conspirators, to assassinate one of the best men the world has ever seen—Abraham Lincoln, the President of the United States. They assassinated our President, thinking perhaps that our Government would die. This was part of the machinery of treason—this was part of the duty assigned to the conspirators against the Government, and well did they perform it. I ask you then to answer this way when they ask you in reference to this trial: tell them that the blood of the martyred Lincoln asks that the men who committed this foul deed, this heinous crime, this bloody offense against law, against the nation and against God—that they shall be a sacrifice for the deeds that they have perpetrated against law and humanity. The authorities at Washington City assembled a Military Commission and did hang certain persons belonging to this association, and they published to the world, over their own signatures, that they had incontestible evidence that Jeff. Davis, Benjamin, and Jake Thompson and others were in conspiracy to assassinate the lamented Lincoln. And they offered 100,000 reward for the capture of Jeff. Davis and those other men. They captured Davis and they tried others by Military Commission and hung them. Then I say to them—you either published to the world that which was false, or else you have a right to hang Jeff. Davis and the rest the same as you did the others. I would say further, that it is [illegible] to me, when they tried Wirtz for cruelty to Union prisoners, they did not require a jury or a Court. They tried him before a Military Commission. He was a Captain in the army, and kept our prisoners in such a manner as caused them to die by thousands. We tried him by Military Commission and he was convicted and hung. Is it possible that they can try a Captain in the line for a violation of the laws of war, and can hang him, and that they cannot try the Commander in Chief who commands the Captains and everybody else for the same offense? I would like to know what kind of a rule this is. It seems to me a strange rule that we cannot convict a superior officer for the same crime and before the same tribunal that we convict a subordinate officer. Jeff. Davis, the head of the rebellion, is in prison in Fortress Monroe. They talk to us so sympathetically in reference to his punishment. They must examine him every day to see whether his health is improving or declining. They must give him the right to go where he chooses around the Fortress. A few gentlemen visit him to ascertain whether the country is rife for his release, but when they place their finger on the pulse of the nation they find that it is up at fever heat, and that, if he is admitted to bail there will be such a howl throughout the land as will make these men tremble in their very seats of power. When they find that this plan will not work, then Mrs. Davis (and I don't blame her, for she is a woman, and as a matter of course loves her husband) is brought forward and they have a piteous story about his [illegible], and everybody applies that he may be pardoned upon his bond of honor, I suppose [illegible]. Then comes forward again and takes hold of the pulse of the American people, but he finds he is not yet quite ready. Quit [illegible] a little too much fever still. My fellow-citizens, while I charge no man with it individually, yet I believe to-day there are men high in position in this land who, if it were not for the fear of the American people, would to-day parole J. C. Davis and let him escape from the country. I do not want to see that done. I do not believe it is a part of the plan of the loyal people of this country. Ah, but say some of these sympathisers, do you want to keep a man in prison and let him rot? Well, I don't know about that, but they kept a good many of our men there until they rotted. They had no sympathy for the poor soldier at Andersonville. Perhaps some are present here to-day who were confined in that wretched prison-pen. I know one young man in Clinton county who belonged to my regiment, a young man of the name of Darby, who lost both feet at Andersonville. They were frozen and rotted off, and he to-day walks upon wooden legs. For that poor boy and thousands of others there was no sympathy in the bosoms of traitors. While they were suffering and dying, did you once hear a voice of supplication or sympathy from the South saying, "Come here, friends of these poor mortals, and give them relief; we are not able to do it; take them and administer to their wants." There was no expression of sympathy. Yet when one of these arch traitors is confined in prison for a little while, and when every attention is bestowed upon him, we hear some of these people speak of it as a great hardship and wrong.

It may be that I have none of the milk of human kindness in my nature, it may be that I am hard-hearted in my feelings. I cannot tell, but of this I am certain: I can go with you to the graves of your sons and brothers upon the battlefields of our country, and I can weep with you over the ashes of these fallen martyrs—but God forbid that I shall weep over the pains and penalties or punishment which may be visited upon traitors for treason in this land.

Let our people then do their duty. The work is before you. You are the men to perform it. Let us take no step backward, but go forward with this great work and complete it.

SPEECH OF GENERAL SHERMAN.

[illegible] and Gentlemen and Fellow Citizens: When I accepted the invitation to come over to your town and join with you in the festivities of the Fourth of July I little dreamed I would be ushered so soon upon the stage. I thought some younger and more ambitious man would break the way, and prepare for those who were to follow. But I find myself here at your bidding. I believe I have never failed you, and I will try to do my best now. I think every old soldier will give me full credit for being in earnest. It is a long time, my friends, since I have seen a Fourth of July within the groves with ladies and children, all free in the woods of nature. I have seen crowds of all kinds in the cities and on the battle-fields, but I cannot recollect having seen a crowd of ladies and children all mingled together in the native forest for many, many years. I trust you will bear with me if my voice does not reach you all, for I am not accustomed to pitch it through the woods and over the heads of a crowd like this, and I hope you will be as quiet and silent as possible. I regret that Governor Oglesby is unwell, for I thought that he, with his herculean frame and giant intellect, would take the load off my shoulders, but I am going to leave a big pile for my friend John Logan, who has got to fight it through. [Laughter.] Now, my friends and fellow soldiers, with this introduction, let me ask you if we have not a right to come here together and be satisfied and rejoice. [Applause.] We have a right to come here and say that this is our national day, and that we will celebrate it just when and how we please—that we will fire guns or raise flags, or do what we please, for it is our day—your day, my day. We are all free in this country. And when did we acquire this freedom? Just ninety years ago, as these young ladies who sang to us in so sweet a melody served to remind us—just ninety years ago it was boldly proclaimed to the whole world that a new nation was born. I wish they had called it Columbia, but they called it the United States of America, and we have inherited the name and the fame, and now it becomes us to transmit both to those who may come after us, and we will do it. [Cheers.] But, my friends, inheriting a national name on that day—ninety years ago—we can look back into the past and into the still darker future, and see whether we were entitled to that name. I remember to have read of Columbus on his voyage of discovery, and I have always felt for him as he stood by that foremast looking into the future, into the unknown distance of time, and never doubting but that he would discover at last the land which we have inherited. I would rather have him standing there by that foremast as our national emblem than almost anything else—standing there full of confidence and hope, looking into the future, never doubting, and regardless of the tumult and turmoil around him. He did discover our country, and then the nations of the earth commenced grasping for territory—the Spaniard for his gold and for the fountain of perpetual youth. He has found his gold and passed away. The English, the Swedes, the Germans—all came in search of fertile lands. They looked for the land which would remain forever yielding its grain, its grass and its timber; so that not only they, but their children after them, should live and enjoy the fruits of their labor. The Spaniards have nearly vanished from our territory, but the English, the Swedes, the Germans, the French remain, and their posterity will remain till the end of time. From this I infer the fact that the soil and climate such as you enjoy here in Illinois is the wealth of America—not alone its mineral resources. They are incidental. They are dug up and taken away, but this soil remains to you to-day, next year and forever to the end of time, and will produce food and raiment for all men on the face of the earth. Then comes the intellectual part of our history. Look at Franklin drawing from the clouds the agency of electricity, so that now you are able to communicate with your friends far away that you are well and comfortably assembled together. He is also another man whom we should cherish with pride—he and other men who made your Constitution according to the best of their understanding, believing that it would fulfill the destiny for which they contemplated it. No one doubted that it was fair upon its face—every paragraph had been well studied, and it did work like a charm, and I still think that it is the best heritage which they could have given us. But like many of the people of the world, we are not governed by reason alone. We are full of passion—I am full of passion and sometimes act wildly. So do you, and so do all men. We do not follow the dictates of our intelligence and reason, but are swayed hither and thither by passion. Passion carried us into our war with England—then came the Mexican war, and finally the great war which is now over, thank God, and you are the living witnesses of it. I know that you connect my name with the last war—but I must confess there were phases which I was powerless to meet. Every one of you have seen and comprehended perfectly the whole problem. A part of our people supposing they had sustained wrongs endeavored to break down our Government. You said no—they said yes. There was no use disguising it further—it had to be fought out. You boys of Illinois know that it had to be fought out. All arguments were at an end. All discussions should have ceased then and there, and every man capable of bearing arms should have seized his musket and rushed to the standard of his country and rescued it from danger as you did. But it was difficult for a time, as you all know, to comprehend that any part of the American people would rebel against any other part. I could not believe it until I saw it. I doubt if any man in Illinois comprehended in the beginning that we were to be swamped in civil war. But when at last it flashed upon us how majestically rose our people. It is one of the proudest points in our history that our young men, regardless of party and of former associations, rushed to the rescue of that flag which is the symbol of our nation and rescued it. But I hope that never, never again will you be called on to be exposed, as you were, to the dangers and vicissitudes of war. But I believe that you, and such as you that fill our Western country and the far off East, will solve and make plain that course which will bring us all back to our true position in reference to national right and national honor.

[At this point Governor Oglesby made his appearance on the platform and was received with loud cheers.]

As I remarked in the first place, ladies and gentlemen, I do not intend to make a Fourth of July speech, and I am glad to see that the Governor has come to my rescue. There are two or three points in relation to the last war upon which I want the Illinois boys to understand how I felt, because in those days you remember I could talk to you very confidentially. I believe, as a general rule, there was a full understanding among the Generals of the army, but even we had to be very careful lest information of our intentions should get abroad and result in our loss. If I had said in advance that I was going to do a certain thing, many of you now living might not be here now. It was our desire—the desire of every officer in the army, every general officer—to accomplish the object in view, and as far as possible restore you back in health to your families. We did not like to see blood shed, but we were determined to produce results. Now, what were those results? To make every man, woman and child in the South feel that if they had rebelled against the flag of our country they must die or submit. [Loud cheers.] That was the problem which we had to solve. As long as they met us man to man, and face to face, we went at them and struck in front and rear. And when they tried the game of drawing us farther away—compelling us to leave our garrisons on guard here, so as to absorb our strength—when they undertook to play that game, it became necessary for us to defeat it, and to make it appear that we were going to do one thing, and then go and do another. [Laughter.] Now you all remember when we took Atlanta it looked as though with our army strung along a line of six or seven hundred miles the head of the column would be crushed. If I had gone on stringing out my forces, would there not have been a time when the head of that column would have been crushed in? Your soldiers are generals enough to see that. Therefore, I resolved in my mind to stop the game of guarding their cities, and destroy their cities. Now, my friends know there are persons who denounce me as inhuman. I appeal to you if I have not always been kind and considerate to you. "I care not what they say." ["Bully for you," and cheers.] I say that it ceased to be our duty to guard their cities any longer, and had I gone on stringing out my column little by little, some of your Illinois regiments would not have come home, but would have been crushed. Therefore, I determined to go through their country, and so I took one army myself and gave my friend George H. Thomas the other, and we whaled away with both. Therefore, we destroyed Atlanta, and if we had destroyed all the cities of the South in order to bring about the result in view, it would have been right. The course we pursued did produce the desired result, and now you see your young friends returned to you—wives see their husbands—all reunited in this beautiful grove in Illinois, and God knows I hope you will never be sent forth again; but if you are, I know you will respond more promptly than you did before. Now fellow soldiers, I have spoken longer than I could wish, but I beg you would consider it as a measure of my love for the old army. I do not believe you realize or understand the feeling which I had for you, as you left all behind you and followed me blindly, not knowing what was transpiring in my mind—followed me in my long and devious career without asking questions—cheerfully and well. I thank you from the bottom of my heart, because then you were serving your country. You realize it now—you and I surviving. I did not expect to survive the war, but I have survived it and you have survived it and now from the bottom of my heart I thank you for that cheerful performance of your duty—that noble and manly endurance which at last caused the clouds of war to vanish, and enabled our flag to float triumphantly over our whole land. And now, here we are in peace and quiet at home in the midst of plenty, prosperity and friends, and I trust these old flags may remain with you forever, and that brighter and newer ones will never be tarnished by those who come after us.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above mentioned, and also—

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS.

And in every disease any way connected with the disorder or decay of the Procreative Functions. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once rebraced, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man, he stands erect, [illegible] firm step; his mind [illegible] of an [illegible] and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor. ALLEN'S

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus, CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION! IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

617 KEARNY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence, or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid, [illegible] and disfigured faces and their broken-down [illegible] disqualifying them for the happiness of [illegible] or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies, that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans.

Seminal Weakness

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self abuse, or solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, [illegible], pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, [illegible], night sweats, [illegible] and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails in effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by any of the San Francisco quacks.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to patients a written instrument, binding himself to a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Doctor Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 617 Kearney st., near Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

Consultations FREE.

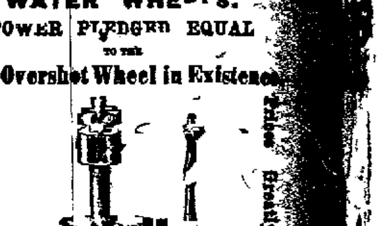
WATER WHEELS.

POWER PLEDGED EQUAL

TO THE

Best Overshot Wheel in Existence!

Prices Greatly Reduced!



American Double Turbine Water Wheel

IS NOW MANUFACTURED BY THE OREGON IRON Works, in the city of Portland, and orders for the same can be filled immediately. We have a full assortment of the different sizes, from 10 inches to 48 inches in diameter. That we may know the proper sized wheel you require, measure your water in the following way: the width of the stream, the average depth, and the distance it flows in a minute.

All the wheels now in use give universal satisfaction. Both the construction of the wheel and its performance commend it to the better judgment of all who are capable of appreciating the highest development of mechanical construction. Therefore it has conquered the most violent opposition.

This wheel is especially adapted to mining purposes; is light and can be easily packed into the mines. Wheels weighing from 100 to 300 pounds will yield from 10 to 40 horse power, under a head of 25 or 30 feet. They are the cheapest wheel to set up known, as they are arranged as to produce the greatest power for the water used.

The prices of these wheels have now been reduced to the ability of all. Come and see them or send for a circular to
